

Spelling Activities Grid

Word Smart (Linguistic)	Logic Smart (Logical-Mathematical)	Picture Smart (Visual-Spatial)	Body Smart (Bodily-Kinaesthetic)	Music Smart (Musical)	People Smart (Interpersonal)	Self Smart (Intrapersonal)
Write a sentence to explain the meaning of 10 of your words.	Put your words to a number code. eg. A=1, B=2, etc.	Design a board game to play using your words.	Spell your words using sign language. You may need to research this on the internet.	Compose your own jingle using your spelling words.	Use your words to play hangman.	Put your words in order from easiest to spell to hardest.
Write a commercial using as many of your words as possible.	Arrange your words in alphabetical order.	Use Microsoft Word to type your words in different fonts and colours.	Change the shape of your body to create letters. Spell out your words.	Write some lines from songs that you know that contain your words.	Create new spelling activities to help others learn their words.	Write your words onto small pieces of paper. Cut them into memorable parts and glue them back together.
Research the origins of some of your words.	Devise a mnemonic to remember 5 of your trickiest words. eg. CAT = Caring And Timid.	Illustrate each of your words with a picture.	Enter your words at www.spellingcity.com and play some games.	Spell your words while playing ascending notes on a musical instrument.	Play Charades using your spelling words.	Create a Find-a-word using your words.
Search through newspapers to find as many versions of your words as possible. eg. evaluate, evaluation, etc.	Write your spelling words using a phone keypad as a number code.	Create a poster displaying some of your words. You can make it at www.glogster.com .	Type your words and then break them into syllables.	Spell your words as a chant to a nursery rhyme.	Create a PowerPoint presentation using your spelling words.	Explain why you find it hard to remember some of your spelling words.
Write some synonyms of your words (words with the same meaning).	Find words that have broken a spelling rule you know.	Create a comic strip using your spelling words.	Create a puppet play that uses all of your words.	Change the words to songs by adding your spelling words. Try to get them to make sense!	Send your teacher an email using as many of your words as possible.	Create a Crossword using your words.

